

Hold On

Chris De Burgh

Somewhere a lonely girl lies weeping
A lonely man tries sleeping
But he's getting nowhere...
Sometime it may be close to morning
She thought she heard him calling
But there's nobody there...
And somehow somehow he knows he's got to try to
Hold on somewhere she's crying for him
Hold on someday her smile will call him.
Hold on there's someone out there trying for him.
Somehow sometime somewhere...
Somewhere again she sleeps alone
He is reaching for the phone
But he's calling no-one...
Oh sometime she's dreaming of her lover
It really can't be over
We've only just begun...
And somehow somehow I know I've got to try to
Hold on somewhere she's crying for me
Hold on someday her smile will call me
Hold on there's someone out there trying for me.
Somehow sometime somewhere hold on hold on
Somehow sometime somewhere.
