

Rise Up

Skunk Anansie

You're too cool to be smart but that is what you are You're too sane to be hard but that is what you are You're too sad to be high but that is what you are
You don't have to run You got to rise up, sweet woman, child
 You got to rise up, sweet woman, child
 You got to rise up, sweet woman, child
We're losing our convictions You're too wise to be cool but that is what you are You're too deep to be good but that is what you are Oh, you're too weak to be sold but that is what you are
You don't have to run and you don't have to hide You got to rise up, sweet woman, child
 You got to rise up, sweet woman, child
 You got to rise up, sweet woman, child
We're losing our convictions You're losing all of your good convictions
 Your integrity, slowly watered down
 Never mind your soul destruction
Never mind, never mind, never mind, never mind it all You got to rise up, oh, sweet woman, child
 You got to rise up, oh, sweet woman, child
 You got to rise up, oh, sweet woman child
 You got to rise up Rise up, rise up
 (Rise up, sweet woman, child, rise up, sweet woman, child)
 Rise up, rise up
(Rise up, sweet woman, child, rise up, sweet woman, child)(Rise up, sweet woman, child)
 Oh Lord, when you feel it, feel it in the air
 (Rise up, sweet woman, child)
 Oh Lord, when you feel like you wanna cry
 (Rise up, sweet woman, child)
 Oh Lord, when you love the one you're with Rise up, sweet woman, child
 Rise up, sweet woman, child
 Rise up, sweet woman, child
