Gotta Let It Go

Def Leppard

All or nothing, winner take it all away
In for the kill, there's blood on the water it's flowin' your way
I don't know nothin' but I know it's a long way down
The king of the hill, you reach for the sky, you're losing your crown
You tell it to the one, you tell it to the sun
You tell it to the friends who've come and gone
You tell it to yourself again, again
Gotta let it go, gotta let it go
Give it away
Gotta let it go, gotta let it go
Give it away, let it go
You came out of nothing crawling out of history
The man of the hour, you done the time, you hold the key
But there's always something, something just beyond your reach
The bigger the prize the more you desire, the less you can feel
You do it for yourself there's really no one else
Another empty trophy on the shelf
But you're hangin' all alone, again, again and again and again

Gotta let it go, gotta let it go
Give it away
Gotta let it go, gotta let it go
Give it away
Gotta let it go, gotta let it go
More you want it
More you need it
More you got it
[Incomprehensible]Gotta let it go, gotta let it go
Give it away
Gotta let it go, gotta let it go
Give it away
Gotta let it go, gotta let it go
Gotta let it go, gotta let it go
Gotta let it go, gotta let it go
Gotta let it go
