Look. Love is a nightmare.
Timeâ€™s over

A miracle has come to me
From the beginning, we had started
Because I knew everything about you
I was confident, yeah

(Itâ€™s cold) Itâ€™s just your mood
(Itâ€™s strange) I donâ€™t care about that
(Thank you) All that matters is that you came back to me
You love me, right?

I had such a scary and bad nightmare
You left me forever
Even you can tell itâ€™s a dream that doesnâ€™t make sense

Because thereâ€™s no way I would lose you

Donâ€™t even get away from me for a second
No, I just wonâ€™t let go of you
Iâ€™ll accept every little thing of you
(Iâ€™ll accept)
(Iâ€™ll accept)
You love me, right?

I had such a scary and bad nightmare
You left me forever
Even you can tell itâ€™s a dream that doesnâ€™t make sense
Because thereâ€™s no way I would lose you

Oh~
I wouldnâ€™t want to see me without you even in a dream
Oh~
If only you are next to me, I donâ€™t care if itâ€™s a nightmare

Suddenly, you grow faint
(I canâ€™t seem to say anything)
Iâ€™m afraid to open my eyes right now
(I wanna go to you, I wanna fall asleep again)

(Ravi)
Reality without you is like a dream where you are running away
Like a MÃ¶bius strip, we go round and round
You are trying to leave me once again
Donâ€™t turn around, Iâ€™m holding onto your arm
If you wanna go, try to go
Try to leave as you step on my pounding heart for you
Right now

It was so sweet that I had a terrible nightmare
We had started everything from the beginning
(We had started)
Youâ€™re not here but everything is the same
In this dream the moment you left me

Oh~
A cruel night is endlessly coming to me
Oh~
I close my eyes again, taking me back to that dream

Into an eternal dream that I wonâ€™t ever wake from
