Faith No More

Don't put that thing too close to my head
It took this long just to get ahead, he says
He knows for sure but that he can't decide
Between his decency and this matter of pride
So he's growin' up on time, he's growin' up in the middle
Said he's growin' up on time, he's growin' up in the middle
Get down, growin' up on time, growin' up in the middle
Get down, growin' up on time, growin' up in the middle
And it burns and it burns, the sun burns and it burns
Oh, now I can really feel it, how could you ever stand it?
We've got the same ideas, we got the same old fears
There are different colors sometimes, but hey, who cares?
It's just years that shears, that shears our lives apart
Yeah, like the time you tried to teach your nephew to fart
He couldn't do it, push so he's growin' up in the middle
Said he's growin' up on time, their growin' up in the middle
I'm growin' up on time, I'm growin' up in the middle
Said I'm growin' up on time, hey, guess what?
Oh, now I can really feel it, how could you ever stand it?
I'm not the kind of person who would say it, if it wasn't the truth
And then you go and tell a friend that
Her heart's on fire and it has no meaning
Well, now and only now I know the difference
When you tell me that there ain't no difference
So I'm growin' up on time, I'm growin' up in the middle
Said I'm growin' up on time, I'm growin' up in the middle
I'm growin' up on time, I'm growin' up
Now's the time to evaluate between
The love you give and the love that you take
It's not a matter of opinion when it comes down to it
It's just a difference of opinion, that much I can take
So I'm growin' up on time, I'm growin' up in the middle
Said she's growin' up on time, she's growin' up in the middle
So they're growin' up on time, they're growin' up in the middle I'm growin' up on time, I'm growin' up in between
And it burns and it burns and it burns
And it burns, the sun burns and it burns
And it burns and it burns
