

Father

Hillsong United

To bring this world to life
To heal this heart of mine
Your grace enough, your grace enough
To mend this world in need
To break the chains in me
Your grace enough, now this means love
The weight of all our sin upon His shoulders
We should all be called Your sons and daughters
Father, let heaven and earth collide
In the endless wonder of Your love upon the cross
We will follow and offer this life forever
To see Your love unfold
Adopted as Your own
Alive to make You known
Now this means love, this means love
The weight of all our sin upon His shoulders
We should all be called Your sons and daughters
Father, let heaven and earth collide
In the endless wonder of Your love upon the cross
We will follow and offer this life forever
To see Your love unfold

For the lost and for the broken
For the slave and for the orphan
For everyone to realize Your love
From the famous to the faceless
From the beggar to the king
For everyone to realize Your love
You restore the broken hearted
You bring freedom to the captive
For one and all, forever this means love
All Your children come together
All Your sons and all Your daughters
Your grace enough, forever this means love
Singing, Father, let heaven and earth collide
In the endless wonder of Your love upon the cross
We will follow and offer this life forever
To see Your love unfold
Your grace enough, forever this means love

You gave it all for one and all
Your grace enough, forever this means love
