Faithful

Linda Ronstadt

You said loving you and leaving you
Was the hardest thing to do
To give my foot another chance
To try another shoeBut every time I see someone
I'm always seeing you
No, I have not always been faithful
I always have been trueDid you ever walk the empty street
Until the break of dawn
Just to hear some lonesome sparrow
Sing a lonesome song?Did it make you feel any better
Like a stranger left so low?
Though you didn't know you both had been
A thousand miles from homeAnd you said loving you and leaving you
Was the hardest thing to do
To give my foot another chance
To try another shoeBut every time I see someone
I'm always seeing you
No, I have not always been faithful
I always have been true
No, I have not always been faithful
I always have been true

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/