Only You

Delilah

I?ve been trapped inside the books
Only drowning in my thoughts
I?ve been searching for a light
Hoping it will lead me out
I?ve been climbing up the wall
Screaming someone help me up
Hoping you would hear like oh
Say you will lead on now
Only you can keep me safe
So I?ll just stay here in your arms
Holding you goes to I?ll be there as
It waits inside my heart
Laying still in your embrace
I?ma sleep when you?re awake
Place a kiss upon my head
To match the smile on my face
There?s not a bridge that I won?t cross
To stop me missing you so much
Without you here I am numb

I won?t fall to feel your touch
Only you and you alone
Can speak the words I long to hear
Holding you so close
Your whisper sounds like music to my ear
In my sleep, walk with me
We?ll sing lullabies
You and I were meant to flyyy!
I?m afraid in case I wake
This dream is where I?ll stay
I will never ever love another guy
Can?t you see, longing for me
Only you and you alone
Can speak the words I long to hear
Holding you so close
Your whisper sounds like music to my ear
Only, only, only, only you
Only, only, only, only you...
