

Blue Lips (Live In London)

Regina Spektor

He stumbled into faith and thought
God this is all there is
The pictures in his mind arose
And began to breathe
And all the gods in all the worlds
Began colliding on a backdrop of blueBlue lips
Blue veinsHe took a step but then felt tired
He said, I'll rest a little while
But when he tried to walk again
He wasn't a child
And all the people hurried past
Real fast and no one ever smiledBlue lips
Blue veins
Blue, the color of the planet from far, far awayHe stumbled into faith and thought
God this is all there is
The pictures in his mind arose
And began to breathe
And no one saw and no one heard
They just followed lead
The pictures in his mind awoke
And began to breedThey started off beneath the knowledge tree
Then they chopped it down to make white picket fences
They marched along the railroad tracks
And smiled real wide for the camera lenses
They made it past the enemy lines
Just to become enslaved in the assembly linesBlue lips
Blue veins
Blue, the color of the planet from far, far awayBlue lips
Blue veins
Blue, the color of the planet from far, far awayBlue, the most human color
Blue, the most human color
Blue, the most human colorBlue lips
Blue veins
Blue, the color of our planet from far, far away
