Starting All Over

Saga

There hasn't been a single day go by
That I haven't wondered what it would be like
If I could just stop thinking 'bout yesterday
'Cause I know all of my tomorrows start todaySometimes I sit back and wonder
If a little temptation is all I really needWe're on a road that we've never been before
Where in the world will it end?
Now I'm face to face with my point of no return
I'm starting all over againI still remember hearing someone say
That all good things come to those who wait
But over and over I've been told
That patience is a barricade
So I'm still waiting to be shown the waySometimes I sit back and wonder
If a little temptation is all I needWe're on a road that we've never been before
Where in the world will it end? (It's now starting all over again)
Now I'm face to face with my point of no return
I'm starting all over againWe're on a road that we've never been before
Where in the world will it end? (It's now starting all over again)
Now I'm face to face with my point of no return
I'm starting all over again I won't look backWe're on a road that we've never been before
Where in the world will it end? (It's now starting all over again)
Now I'm face to face with my point of no return
I'm starting all over again
