Today

Blanca

Youâ€™re wondering if you should go for it
Asking when itâ€™ll be the right time
Questioning if you have what it takes
But He will give you strength

Donâ€™t be held down by your regrets
Donâ€™t let fear steal your every breath
He is with you with every step
So take every chance you get What are you waiting for

Youâ€™ve got today
To forgive, and to live, let the light shine in
To begin, start again
Youâ€™ve got today
Turn the page, make a change, love will find a way
Donâ€™t hesitate
Youâ€™ve got today

Your every dream is yours for a reason
Nobody else can take your place
It donâ€™t mean a thing if it seems impossible
All things are possible

He makes every day an open door
So try again if youâ€™ve failed before

Itâ€™s not too late â€˜Cause youâ€™ve got today

We gotta wake up, wake up
And give it all to Him
Letâ€™s come alive again
