We All Fall

See the leaves falling to the ground
See them falling all around
On the cemetary mound (x2)Teardrops on my note pad
Dope sick feels so bad
Everything seems so fucked up
I'm about to go madMy life tried to live right
This night hope will end right
Hells doors open wide
Inside here's your inviteOne breath should I use it?
Life / death should I choose it
Legacy, life of me
Hear my voice in this musicPhone calls to a few peeps
No promises to keep
Close my eyes kiss the sky
And then just go to sleepSo long tried to hold on
So long tried to stay strong
Everything that I know and grow
Now seems long goneNo more hearing "I should try"
No more wishing I would die
Close my eyes, let it go
And leave you with "goodbye"(chorus x2)
See the leaves falling to the ground
See them falling all around
On the cemetary mound
Everybodies gonna die someday
Everybodies gonna die someday
Die, die somedayOne love to all those
That got me through the lows
And stood by my side
And they came out to my showsAnd gave me a reason
To pick up this hatchet
And run with the family
Scream PsychopathicI wanna thank you for all the time spent
You dont know how much it really meant
To have family show love to a scrub
Who came up from shitI hopeyou know that I give all
You show me how to always stand tall
Brought me from the grip of death
So know that I love y'allChorus (x4)

See the leaves falling to the ground
See them falling all around
On the cemetary mound
Everybodies gonna die someday
Everybodies gonna die someday
Die, die somedaySee the leaves falling to the ground
See them falling all around
On the cemetary mound
