Big D and the Kids Table

[written by Johnathan Richman]well, i've already been to Paris, i've already been to Rome but what did i do but miss my home? oh, New England
i went out west to Californ' but i missed the land where i was born i can't help itoh, New Englandi've seen old Israel's Arab plains it's quite magnificent, but so is Maineoh, New England[third verse by Big D]now if you like Camden in North London
we got that spirit here in Allston now many people ask, "Where you from?"
with a heartfelt smile, i say, "From Boston"oh, new england
