Never Gonna Let You Go

The Janedear Girls

You say my name
Like a secret no one knows
How strange the way
Two can share one soul
I'm never gonna let you go
I'm never gonna let you walk away
There's not an inch of me that you don't know
I'm never gonna let you go, let you go
Even the sun can't light my darkest day
Like you see right through
The makeup on my face
I'm never gonna let you go
I'm never gonna let you walk away
There's not an inch of me that you don't know
I'm never gonna let you go, let you go

Lying here next to me
You pretend to sleep
You close your eyes
Should I wake you
Should I take the chance
To say what's really on my mind?
I'm never gonna let you go
I'm never gonna let you walk away
There's not an inch of me that you don't know
I'm never gonna let you go, let you go
I'm never gonna let you so, let you go, let you go
I can't let you go, nobody knows
Gonna let you, let you go, let you go, let you go
