

SWEAR TO GOD

blackbear

[Intro]

Yeah, yeah

Oh, yeah[Verse 1]

I spent another night alone again

Woke up in the coldest, coldest bed

I ran into God at the liquor store

She asked me what I'm always running for[Pre-Chorus]

I gotta get out, I gotta get with it

I got too much doubt and I don't know my limit

[Chorus]

But I could deny and I could just lie

But I'm forthcoming to you

I'm telling the truth, I cheated on you

And it didn't feel good, promised I'd change

But you see right through (Seeing right through)

I'm sick of taking flights to see these other girls

I swear I'm gonna change (Seeing right through)

I'm sick of taking drugs and feeling bad

I swear to God, I'm gonna change[Verse 2]

I've been so depressed, can't leave my couch

It's all good, it's not like you're checking up on me

You ripped out the best part of my heart and let it bleed

It's all my fucking fault; I can't blame anyone but me[Pre-Chorus]

And I gotta get out, I gotta get with it

I got too much doubt and I don't know my limit

[Chorus]

But I could deny and I could just lie

But I'm forthcoming to you

I'm telling the truth, I cheated on you

And it didn't feel good, promised I'd change

But you see right through (Seeing right through)

I'm sick of taking flights to see these other girls

I swear I'm gonna change (Seeing right through)

I'm sick of taking drugs and feeling bad

I swear to God, I'm gonna change

I'm sick of taking flights to see these other girls

I swear I'm gonna change (Seeing right through)

I'm sick of taking drugs and feeling bad

I swear to God, I'm gonna change[Outro]

I spent another night alone again
Woke up in the coldest, coldest bed
I ran into God at the liquor store
She asked me what I'm always running for
