

Grey

Steril

The sky is grey
The sand is grey
And the ocean is grey
And I feel right at home
In this stunning monochrome
    Alone in my way
    I smoke and I drink
    And every time I blink
    I have a tiny dream
    But as bad as I am
    I'm proud of the fact
    That I'm worse than I seem
    What kind of paradise
    Am I looking for?
I've got everything I want
    And still I want more
    Maybe some tiny shiny key
    Will wash up on the shore
    You walk through my walls
    Like a ghost on TV
    You penetrate me
    And my little pink heart
    Is on its little brown raft
    Floating out to sea
    And what can I say
    But I'm wired this way
    And you're wired to me
    And what can I do
    But wallow in you
    Unintentionally
    What kind of paradise
    Am I looking for?
I've got everything I want
    And still I want more
    Maybe some tiny shiny key
    Will wash up on the shore
    Regretfully
I guess I've only got three
    Simple things to say

Why me?
Why this now?
Why this way?
With overtones ringing
And undertows
Pulling away
Under a sky that is grey
On sand that is grey
By an ocean that's grey
What kind of paradise
Am I looking for?
I've got everything I want
And still I want more
Maybe some tiny shiny key
Will wash up on the shore
