Honey

Venus Hum

Wading in a sea of lilacs
Praise you in a shroud of violets
Dew is resting on my eyelids
God is smiling nowWading in a sea of lilacs
Praise you in a shroud of violetsHoney, running through meWading in a sea of lilacs
Praise you in a shroud of violets
Dreaming, swimming in my eyelids
God is smiling nowHoney, running through meHoney, running through meHoney on a lion's tongue
Honey on a lion's mane
You have the most beautiful name
Running through honey, slowHoney on a lion's tongue
Honey on a lion's mane
You have the most beautiful name
Running through honey, slowYou may possibly be
The most radiant thing
You may possible beHoney, running through meHoney, running through with meHoney on a lion's tongue
Honey on a lion's mane
You have the most beautiful name
Running through honey, slowHoney on a lion's tongue
Honey on a lion's mane
You have the most beautiful name
Running through honeyHoney on a lion's tongue
Honey on a lion's mane
You have the most beautiful name
Running through honeyYou may possibly be (Honey on a lion's tongue)
