Gonna Leave the Light On

Lorrie Morgan

You don't even know, where you're going
There's too many tears for you to see
If you ever get around to ever looking back
You won't have trouble finding me'Cause I'm gonna leave the light on
You left burning in my heart
It's gonna shine forever, brighter than the skySo if you're lost and lonely, somewhere in the dark
I'm gonna leave the light on
You left burning, burning in my heartI don't even look for a letter
I won't hang around, the telephone
If all your dreams are lonely dreams, I will understand
And one light in the night, will lead you home'Cause I'm gonna leave the light on
You left burning in my heart
It's gonna shine forever, brighter than the skySo if you're lost and lonely, somewhere in the dark
I'm gonna leave the light on
You left burning, burning in my heart
I'm gonna leave the light on
You left burning, burning in my heart
