

Thirsty

Daya

you got that lemonade, but baby i ain't buying need something hotter to melt the ice get you some gatorade because your mouth is drying from drooling over me day and night can't hold your horses i know you want the cake but don't skip up the courses boy you're too thirsty-ay-ay-ay-ay for me-eh-eh
won't get to first bay-ay-ay-ay-ase by baking me (da da da da da da) you wanna play the game?
give me a little space and maybe you'll get a taste
