

I Guess I'll Miss the Man

The Supremes

I guess I'll miss the man
Explain it, if you can
His face was far from fine
But still I'll miss his face
And wonder if he's missing mineHe never smiled enough
But though his words were gruff
I liked his shy, sad glance
I never told him so
But then, I never got the chanceSome men are heroes
Some men outshine the sun
Some men are simple, good men
This man wasn't oneThis man
Wasn't one
