

You're So Intricate

Underoath

Like I said, "Leave your baggage at the back door
I'm leaving you the way I think it should be We're always pulling into spaces that we can't back out of Starting fights, we can't talk our way out of them" How does it feel to be on the receiving end of this one? This night will swell with us, this night will run with us
This is our last surviving chance, I wanna survive
This night will swell with us, this night will run with us
This is our last surviving chance, I wanna survive Feast your eyes
(Swell with us)
I don't care I'll fantasize of being manic
And leaving us behind
In your eyes, you were the one that tried Acceptance is what holds us here
And you, my dear, are the one I fear, tonight
We'll try just one more time This is the moment that we all live for
Are you ready? Are you ready? This night will swell with us, this night will run with us
This is our last surviving chance, I wanna survive
This night will swell with us, this night will run with us
This is our last surviving chance, I wanna survive Feast your eyes
(Run with us)
I don't care, I don't care, I don't care
And I'll never care I can't see past your waving hand
Just running away again
I can't see past your waving hand
Just running away again You think so loud, it hurts my ears I wanna know how to get through this
How to get through this without choking up
I wanna know how to get through this
How to get through this without choking up I can't feel you, you're so far from me
