

Whenever Forever Comes

Dolly Parton

(Dolly Parton)Whenever forever comes, when darkness shall hide the sun
I'll still be shining with love for you
When glory bells chime, my love will ring true
Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my love will be yours alwaysWhenever forever comes, when all things are said and done
I'll still be feeling the same way I do
I'll be there for you and still wanting you
God gave you to me, and me to you
And you will still be the one whenever forever comesWe'll float on a cloud through eternity
You'll gather the stars, you'll give them to me
I'll give you the moon and we'll replace the sun
Whenever forever comes, whenever forever comesWhat would I have ever done had I not had you to love?
You've given me more than I ever dreamed Loving you more every day, so it seems
Greater than all other loves I have seen
Its essence will linger on whenever forever comesWe'll float on a cloud through eternity
You'll gather the stars, you'll give them to me
I'll give you the moon and we'll replace the sun
Whenever forever comes, whenever forever comes
