Go Back In Fool

Brandon Rhyder

VERSE 1
Go back in fool, whats the matter with you
You aint going no where, and you know it
Theres no answers in this yard
No wisdom in the dark
Quit talking to the stars
Before you blow itCHORUS
Go back inside, and just hold her for a while
Shes one of a kind, shes worth the fight
And you cant stay out here all nightVERSE 2
So go back in fool, youre getting cold
Shes got her heart pressed up against the other side of the door
This is no time, to make a stand
Come on boy, its time to be a manCHORUS
BRIDGE
Go back inside, just hold her for a while
She ones of a kind, shes worth the fight
Go back inside, just hold her for a while
