Rock Me Gently

SuperHeavy

in life what you treasure joy and pleasure
it depends on how you measure everybody want to live it up yeah oh yeahin life what you treasure
joy and pleasure
its the simpleness of things it depends on what you measure okay oh yeahyou choose what you pray for some like it hot and some love the cold weather don't take the pressure on man oh nolong life, upward mobile markets and happiness and everybody want it and more love less stress and panic enjoy yourself, take full advantagewhen the noise dies ever i will be dancing music lives forever and it never says never no wayit goes on and on and onand the love of the light thats in no lie he was strolling through life without a light and he trips on his soulmate, he took the bite
now he rocks me gently now he rocks me gentlywhen the good get better sure is fun when we're building together nobody wants to be alone yeah oh noJah rising sun make it play for the dawn and the night is done everybody wants to make it homelong life, upward mobile markets and
enjoy yourself, take full advantagewhen the good get better sure is fun when we're building together
oh nowhenever our eyes meet there's a question why (there's more)
we don't have to try babe

(hello!)
our eying!and the love of the light thats in no lie
and he trips on his soulmate, took the bite
now he rocks me gently
now he rocks me gentlyit goes on and on and on
