

Shine

Hundred Reasons

And you tear into one another
As I sit back and watch again
This tainted pair do whatever
Don't realize the time they've spent
 Shine forever, let it go
 Burn forever, let it shine
 Shine forever, let it go
 Burn forever, don't you let go
 So you part again for reasons
Knowing together you don't belong
 So I'll walk away forever
Leave you to the hole that you've dug
 So you wait for me to go now
