

The Plan (feat. Juicy J)

Wiz Khalifa

I looked in the mirror today
And seen the realest nigga I ever met in my life (laugh) I done smoked weed where they said I can't Got rich when they said I can't
Got high and got on the plane
And brought all my niggas when they said I can't Went shopping places they said I can't Bought some shit that they said I can't
Jumped on the road and did all them shows
Cause I was poppin' places they said I ain't
Went hard in places they said I can't
Promoters call and try and set up dates
Bought the car with that yellow paint
Go to parties now and they set up drinks
And it's first class so I'm private plane
Nudie jeans with my Get Up Mane!
Rollin' papers and Mary J
I made eleven mill and I'm still the same What's with all these niggas and they feelings, man?
All of this and I'm still the man
Thought of this when I was just a fan
But all this money wasn't in the plan
Now it's all about them Benjamins
Ballin' hard and you in the stands
All this money I'm a business man
Out of all these niggas I'm the realest man What's with all these niggas and they feelings, man?
All of this and I'm still the man
Thought of this when I was just a fan
But all this money wasn't in the plan
Now it's all about them Benjamins
Ballin' hard and you in the stands
All this money I'm a business man
Out of all these niggas I'm the realest man Out of all these niggas, they callin' me the realest
Started underneath the floor, now my money through the ceiling
Always staying on my grind, turned nothing to a million
Used to just tryna live, now a nigga make a killin'
Gold rollie on my arm, ten rings like a don
Cuban links in my chain, Zigzag on my charm
Champagne on ice, good weed in the jar
Everything Armans, Chanel seats in the car
When you all know; them fuck niggas start hatin'

Talkin' bout what they gon' do but I'm waitin'
 When you getting rich they doubt you
 Shout out my gang and my brother Will cause I couldn't do this without you
 For real! What's with all these niggas and they feelings, man?
 All of this and I'm still the man
 Thought of this when I was just a fan
 But all this money wasn't in the plan
 Now it's all about them Benjamins
 Ballin' hard and you in the stands
 All this money I'm a business man
 Out of all these niggas I'm the realest man What's with all these niggas and they feelings, man?
 All of this and I'm still the man
 Thought of this when I was just a fan
 But all this money wasn't in the plan
 Now it's all about them Benjamins
 Ballin' hard and you in the stands
 All this money I'm a business man
 Out of all these niggas I'm the realest man Eighteen racks I paid it though
 To send them goons straight to ya door
 To show you niggas what's real
 And let you meet that .44
 Run your mouth you in the trunk
 Glock to your head nowhere to run
 Catch you niggas when you by yourself
 We gon' hit you niggas with a hundred drums
 Both low no bad bitch
 Good drink I'm famished
 Bank account outlandish
 Big wrist stay sittin' on Lamb bitch
 Niggas out there tryna test me
 I put the AK where his chest be
 Don't fight with hoes, don't fight with niggas
 No security bitch so don't test me
 Double cup full I be sippin' up
 Mob niggas man real criminals
 If a nigga find you they gon' hit ya up
 With a Bin Laden chopper that'll split ya up
 All these hoes be jockin' tryna get with us
 They gon' swallow this nut, no spittin up
 Your niggas get murked your niggas in jail
 My team gettin' money stay full of drugs What's with all these niggas and they feelings, man?
 All of this and I'm still the man
 Thought of this when I was just a fan
 But all this money wasn't in the plan
 Now it's all about them Benjamins

Ballin' hard and you in the stands
All this money I'm a business man
Out of all these niggas I'm the realest man
What's with all these niggas and they feelings, man?
All of this and I'm still the man
Thought of this when I was just a fan
But all this money wasn't in the plan
Now it's all about them Benjamins
Ballin' hard and you in the stands
All this money I'm a business man
Out of all these niggas I'm the realest man
