

Hey Good Lookin'

Why Don't We

Hey, good looking, how you doing?

Hey, good looking, how you doing?

Hey, good looking, what you doing

To me, to me, to me?

When I wake up, Christmas morning

Skip the presents and the stockings

Just to give up all your loving

To me, to me, to me I'll spend up my whole life just staring at your eyes

And I'll lend my Christmas with you, if you really like

Hey, good looking, how you doing? (way up, way up)

Hey, good looking, how you doing? (way up, way up)

Hey, good looking, what you doing, (way up)

To me, to me, to me? (way up, way up)

When I wake up, Christmas morning (way up, way up)

Skip the presents and the stockings (way up, way up)

Just to give up all your loving (way up)

To me, to me, to me (way up, way up) Oh, don't you go outside, it's way too cold tonight

Just stay at home with me, so I can hold you tight Hey, good looking, how you doing? (way up, way up)

Hey, good looking, how you doing? (way up, way up)

Hey, good looking, what you doing (way up)

To me, to me, to me? (way up, way up)

When I wake up, Christmas morning (way up, way up)

Skip the presents and the stockings (way up, way up)

Just to give up all your loving (way up)

To me, to me, to me (way up, way up)

I'll take up my whole life just staring at your eyes

I'll lend my Christmas with you, if you really like Hey, good looking, how you doing? (way up, way up)

Hey, good looking, how you doing? (way up, way up)

Hey, good looking, what you doing (way up)

To me, to me, to me? (way up, way up)

When I wake up, Christmas morning (way up, way up)

Skip the presents and the stockings (way up)

Just to give up all your loving (way up)

To me, to me, to me
