Here I Go Again

Ana Johnsson

I wanna taste the bittersweet, yeah
I wanna start a riot in these city streets
I dont wanna live life on repeat, no
I wanna crash everything in the presidential suiteHere I go again
And I feel so good, yeah, I feel so fine
Like a hurricane
Im gonna fall again, Im gonna cross the line
I cant wait another day, no
Im ready to be blown away
Here I go againAlways looking for a thrill, yeah
I love the chaos when I start a fire drill
Ive got so much time to kill
I keep making promises I know I cant fulfillHere I go again
And I feel so good, yeah, I feel so fine
Like a hurricane
Im gonna fall again, Im gonna cross the line
I cant wait another day
Im ready to be blown away
Here I go againSome days frustration is on Feeling out of place and all hope is gone
In so many ways the temptations too strong
Its all good when its wrongI wanna make somebody pay
I wanna speak although Ive got nothing to say
Anything to make my day
Ill run you over if youre standing in my wayHere I go again
And I feel so good, yeah, I feel so fine
Like a hurricane
Im gonna fall again, Im gonna cross the line
I cant wait another day
Im ready to be blown away
Here I go againHere I go again
And I feel so good, yeah, I feel so fine
Like a hurricane
Im gonna fall again, Im gonna cross the line
I cant wait another day
Im ready to be blown away
Here I go again and again and again
Here I go again
Here I go again
