Shadowland

Mark Erelli

I'm a shadow since you're gone
Just a shadow in the dawn
That breaks in the sand
A shadow lost in shadowlandMy poor heart just flew away
When it realized one day
The dreams that we planned
Would only end in shadowlandI always wondered why you had to go
Whatever blunder I made I don't know
I guess that something turned out wrong
Didn't quite belong in this lover's songI'm a shadow, but you know
I'm the one who loves you so
So please, take my hand
And lead me out of shadowland
And lead me out of shadowland
