September

Bbmak

Why did you, why did you, did you go, I'll never know
Oh girl, I wonder if I'm out of your mind are you over me
It hurts I can't describe this feeling inside
I remeber the times that when we were never once a moment apart
You were the only one who captured my heart
Where did it go wrong girl
Why did you leave in September thinking that Summer had gone
Now it's a lonely November and now that my Summer has gone
I'm trying not to think of your smile but it is always there
I find that I'm lonely just for a while
I remeber the times that when we were never once a moment apart

You were the only one who captured my heart
Where did it go wrong girl
Why did you leave in September thinking that Summer had gone
Why did you leave me alone
Now it's a lonely November and now that my Summer has gone
Now you'll never know how I feel
I'm here for you if only you could read my mind
You'll always be mine, mine, you'll never know
Why did you, why did you, did you go, I'll never know
You will always be someone that I'll remember
Now I know it is time to move on, now I know
