Illusions

Vanessa Littrell

I am walking through my cloudy existence
Everything around me is crumbling
And I am not ashamed to admit that my illusions
Werenâ€™t helping me at all no not a bit

I am just one on this plane we call life
And I am no different at all
The clothes I wear, the songs I sing
May define me to a point
But, I am still searching like the rest

chorus
I am yearning, take me home, do you know me, I think so

I have pretended to myself and others
And I think that most of us do
But, I am now ready to relinquish my delusions
Because I know itâ€™s something I must do

chorus

So, just like this shirt that got stained in the wash
I think that Iâ€™ve been scrubbing at my wounds
And, though I liked the yellow before it bled to red
I kind of like the message that it sent

chorus
