Feels So Good

Atomic Kitten

It feels so good, I knew that it would
Nothing's gonna take this day away
'Cos it feels so nice, oh so right
Nothing's gonna take this day away
Was only yesterday, I tried to get away
And now this feeling makes you turn around
I was so very sure, what I was wishing for
And now my feet can hardly touch the ground
'Cos the sun is shining, holiday timing
I needed something to rescue me
Oh, feeling weary, now I'm ready
So come on with me
'Cos it feels so good, I knew that it would
Nothing's gonna take this day away
'Cos it feels so nice, oh so right
Nothing's gonna take this day away
I'm where I wanna be, life in so bottle me
I took my cares and left them all behind
I had to get away, deal with them another day
They're out of sight and out of mind
'Cos the sun's still shining, no denying
Something came along to rescue me
Oh, feeling weary, now I'm ready
So come on with me
It feels so good, I knew that it would
Nothing's gonna take this day away
'Cos it feels so nice, oh so right
Nothing's gonna take this day away
It's just, what I needed, emotional healing
It's a wonderful feeling, nothing left to lose, yeah
'Cos it feels so good, I knew that it would
Nothing's gonna take this day away
'Cos it feels so nice, oh so right
Nothing's gonna take this day away
It feels so good, I knew that it would
Nothing's gonna take this day away
'Cos it feels so nice, oh so right
Nothing's gonna take this day away
It feels so good, I knew that it would

Nothing's gonna take this day away
'Cos it feels so nice, oh so right
Nothing's gonna take this day away
