Good Things

The Dandies

The Dandies - Good Things

Coz I want you or everybody else
If i can't have you I'm gonna have everybody else
I was dumb when I was young
It's like I couldn't even see when I was busy hurting you
Just saw myself

Say goodbyes the hardest part
To say goodbye's the easy part
Being alone's the crushing fear that keeps you here
Knot your fingers round my soul
You leave your blue upon my face and beat me whole

When all good things come to an end
In time you'll find you break or bend

Coz i took you, from everybody else
If I can't have you then neither can anybody else
I was dumb when i was young
But i never left my town
And i got trapped inside my world inside myself

You have got to get away
If I can't save me then neither will we
We're gonna drown
We are driftwood in a swell
If we dont let each other go,
We're going down

When all good things come to an end
In time you'll find You break or bend x2

He's chipping away at you
Your living to be abused
I promise the world to you
Could all be yours but you have to choose x3

He's chipping away at you
Your living to be abused

I promise the world to you
Start choosing the life

When all good things come to an end
In time you'll find You break or bend
You bend
