Tell Me

Jhuryll Phoenix

Verse 1
Up, and down, we go...
Like a roller coaster, with a broken track,
But tonight I wanna be different, tonight I wanna try n take it slow
It's been getting too hot, let's make a stop, before we get back on that road(I need to know)Chorus
Tell me that you love me
Tell me that you need me
Tell me you won't play no games
I'm not here to hurt you
You know I deserve you
Tell me that you'll always feel the sameVerse 2
I no longer wanna be the boy, I wanna be your man
You can be my stewardess, I'll be your pilot, and together baby we will always land
This world is too big for us to make any kind of progress if were alone
So when the day turns to night
I'll be your porch light, so you can come back home(But first)Chorus
Tell me that you love me
Tell me that you need me
Tell me you won't play no games
I'm not here to hurt you
You know I deserve you
Tell me that you'll always feel the sameBridge
Sometimes idk where to begin
Looking back on our past I kno we committed some sins
But I feel our love can be stronger something more than just friends
If only we can go back to the very beginningI'd tell you to your face where we are today
So that we can try to prevent the things that caused our decay
It's funny how being hurt makes us stop the games that we play
Never meant to make you cry that shit is never okaySelfish ways lead to our worser days
I lay here and think of all the different ways that id change
But you once told me "sometimes it's too late"
I couldn't help but cry cause I knew I made a mistakeI don't mean to vent it only helps the hurt in my chest the only way I know to maybe clean up this mess
Unless, our current problems only seem to be less
Appealing to you but baby I'm trying my best...I drank this whole bottle in prolly less than a minute
I wanted to call you, I should've but shit baby I didn't
I'm still new at the thing of tryna being fully committed
Just gimmie time, well be fine, I'm still tryna get wit itI check the time and seen it took 11 minutes to write this
I guess it's easier pouring your heart out knowing that despite this

Feeling I can't change
Dealing at close range
Shot to the heart equals your goodnight kissThinking about us battling with our razor sharp javelins
Piercing each others hearts has never been too challenging
Told me I make you feel the worse every time were haggling
Our fights are getting better tho cause all this damn practicingWhat's it all mean, what am i tryna say
That after all that we've been thru, we never left, we always stayed
Why is that? Questions got me questioning myself
Am I better off with you, alone or with somebody else?Chorus
Tell me that you love me
Tell me that you need me
Tell me that you won't play no games
I'm not here to hurt you
You know I deserve you
Tell me that you'll always feel the same
