Outside Looking In

Nick Lachey

Paper houses and fallen angels
Sometimes you can't see in front of you
Wasted moments, trying to be someone
I never wanted to be for you
But I feel my world coming back to life
My eyes are finally open again
Now I see it all in a different light
I'm standing on the outside
I'm finally on the outside looking in
Reaching out into unknown spaces
With nothing left here to blur the view
And now I know I've got to find
This picture frozen in my mind and have a life I never knew
But I feel my world coming back to life

My eyes are finally open again
Now I see it all in a different light
I'm standing on the outside
I'm finally on the outside
I'm tearing out the page
Breathing for a change and it's so good
To feel myself coming back to life
I'm finally on the outside, I'm finally on the outside
And I feel my world coming back to life
My eyes are finally open again
And now I see it all in a different light
I'm standing on the outside
I'm finally on the outside looking in
