The Place You're In

Sam Reid & The Riot Act

Cry baby, cry, I hear what you say
You used to have a good man, baby
But you, you threw it all awayLive, baby, live while you still can
I can change your world, baby
If you let me be your manI wanna get you out of the place you're in
I wanna leave you with no doubt
I wanna get you out of the place you're in Right now, I wanna get you outDream for the day, open up your mind
Well, it don't matter what happens girl
You gotta leave it all behindI wanna get you out of the place you're in
I wanna leave you with no doubt
I wanna get you out of the place you're inBecause I, I see a bluer sky
I see a better life, so baby, dry your eyes
I'm gonna get you outI wanna get you out of the place you're in
I wanna leave you with no doubt
I wanna get you out of the place you're inRight now, I wanna get you out
Right now, I wanna get you out
Right now, I wanna get you out
Oh, right now, I wanna get you out, yeah
