

So Familiar

Steve Martin & Edie Brickell

So familiar I could feel ya when you came through the door
So peculiar like I knew ya somewhere beforeWhere ya from

Where ya going

Where ya been all this timeWhere ya from

Where ya going

Where ya been all my life So familiar I could feel ya burn like the flame
So peculiar like I knew ya before I learned your name Where ya from

Where ya going

Where ya been all this timeWhere ya from

Where ya going

Where ya been all my life So peculiar like I knew ya right from the start So familiar I could feel ya here in my heart You're my baby

How can this be

You're my sweet baby

Come back to me
