It's My Time (Papercha$Er Radio Mix)

Martha Wash

I can see it clear
I'm getting close
I'm almost there
It's indescribable
It's my time to shine
It's my timeWe all have dreams
We all have goals
With laughter and tears,
That's what we're living for
It's my time to shine
It's my timeKeep on walking your own path
Never let anyone hold you back
When you feel like giving in,
You get right up and try again and againBe who you are
And you will go far
There's a place for everyone to be a star
It's my time to shine
It's my timeKeep on walking your own path
Never let anyone hold you back
When you feel like giving in,
You get right up and try again and again
It's my time (ohhh!)
It's my time (yes it is)
It's my time (ohhh!)
It's my time (yeah!)I can see it clear
I'm getting close
I'm almost there
It's indescribable
It's my time to shine
It's my timeKeep on walking your own path
Never let anyone hold you back
When you feel like giving in,
You get right up and try again and again
It's my time
My time
It's my time
My timeLyrics by Helena JohanssonA poweful ballard/love-ballard combination. Your head will start nodding along merrily and your lips will be miming the words whilst you're locked away inside your mind thinking of yourself "yeah things can get better. After so many years in the music business Martha expresses her thoughts in

"It's My Time", This year is realy feels IT'S HER TIME.
