Regression

Catch 22

I love you, I miss you
Forgive me my ineptitude
And I will change my attitude
I'm whining confining
Sweet embraces never known
A harvest from a seed unsownTime is on my side
And I understand my life
Make a choice to move onward
But I admit, I can't commit
And I will not decideI love you, I miss you
Forgive me my ineptitude
And I will change my attitude
I'm whining and pining
Sweet embraces never known
A harvest from a seed unsownDim light shines brightly in pitch black
Bright enough to find my own way back
Push forward or you might lose your chances
Or take less with me, regress with me
And savor true romance
