

I Walked Alone

Jack Mack & The Heart Attack

I was walking on my own
Chill down to the bone
Restless days sleepless nights
I needed someone to hold me tight

Now youâ€™re here and Iâ€™m so afraid
You be walking out on me someday
Donâ€™t wanna run donâ€™t wanna hide
This loneliness tears me up inside now

Heartache by heartache
And tear after tear

I walked alone needed something to believe in
In your arms I finally found a reason
So many changes I was goin through
I walked alone till I found you

When we touch it feels so good
I think id better knock on wood
Our love is strong my aim is true
Iâ€™m hangin up these walking shoes now

Step by step
And day after day

I walked alone needed something to believe in
In your arms I finally found a reason
So many changes I was going through
I waked alone till I found you

I walked alone never stopped believing
In your arms I finally found a reason
For so long I didnâ€™t know what to do
Now Iâ€™m walking alone with you

All this time I was pretending
But I was there for them
With every end thereâ€™s a beginning

You made me understand

I took it step by step
And tear after tear

I walked alone needed something to believe in
In your arms I finally found a reason
So many changes I was going through
I walked alone till I found you

I walked alone never stopped believing
In your arms I finally found a reason
For so long I didn't know what to do
Now I'm walking alone with you

I was chill down to the bone
Are they gonna rescue me
All alone in this world
You make my life complete
