

West of Tomorrow

Sugarloaf

After midnight (x2)
while the gray light (x2)
paints a new day (x2)
misty hour (x2)
love and power (x2)
find a new way (x2)

whole world sleeping
young love stirring
while the night goes (x2)

blue stars fading
curtains playing
by her window (x2)

west of tomorrow, east of today
love explodes into a righteous day sending me so high Iâ€™™ll always stay west of now and east of yesterday

sunshine warming (x2)
slowly waving (x2)
Sunday morning (x2)

speaking softly (x2)
moving near me (x2)
in the dawning (x2)

blue eyes whisper
time for loving
pulls me tighter (x2)

soft lips touch me
woman wants me
just won't fight her (x2)

west of tomorrow, east of today
love explodes into a righteous day
sending me so high Iâ€™™ll always stay

west of now and east of yesterday (x6)

West of tomorrow, East of today
love explodes into a righteous day
sending me so high I'll always stay.
West of now and East of yesterday (x7)
