Show Up

Catey Shaw

Are you gonna run the marathon
And not cross the finish line?
Drive up to Sonoma
And not take a sip of wine?
Are you gonna read the mystery novel
And not find out how it ends?
Prepare for the party
And not even attendAll the work has been done
Only question is are you gonna come?
Are you gonna show up, for this love
Or are you gonna let it go?
Tell me are you gonna show
Are you gonna show up, for this love
Or are you gonna let it go?
Tell me are you gonna showAre you gonna graduate from law school
And never take the Bar?
Fix up an old Mustang
And never drive the car
Are you gonna plant yourself a garden
And never pick what you have grown?
You're gonna waste all of that beauty
Just to spend your nights aloneAll the work has been done
Only question is are you gonna come?
Are you gonna show up, for this love
Or are you gonna let it go?
Tell me are you gonna show
Are you gonna show up, for this love
Or are you gonna let it go?
Tell me are you gonna showIt's easier to sit there in your pain
Than to take a chance and climb aboard this train
You learn to think that there's no other way
But I'll be broken if you choose to stay this way, ohAll the work has been done
Only question is are you gonna come?
Are you gonna show up, for this love
Or are you gonna let it go?
Tell me are you gonna show
Are you gonna show up, for this love
Or are you gonna let it go?
Tell me are you gonna show
