

The Villain

Mesita

You're an actor for an actor
Performing for performers
Something you do, I do
You get me there I'll help you out
You call and I'll come back around
Something you do, I do And all this time resting on your laurels
Will all be for naught
Are you seeing him professionally? I'm an actor for an actor
Performing for performers
Something you do, I do
Count your blessings where they see 'em
Show 'em how you're living
Weaponise your happiness And all this time poaching on a new front
For trading places on the stages
Posing with the famous
Act as if you're one of them
And turn into the villain This is how you become
This is how you become
The villain This is how you become
This is how you become
The villain An actor for an actor
Cold shapeshifter
Something you do, I do
You get me there I'll help you out
You call and I'll come back around
Something you do, I do Use all your time to paint yourself the victim
Strengthen up your branding
In bed with your connections
Broadcasting your blessings
Fake all your smiles
And turn into the villain This is how you become
This is how you become
The villain This is how you become
This is how you become
The villain The villain I don't mean to make you sad x5
But I do
