Flight 101

Sticky Fingers

So long forget the memory
I's no surprise, I'm best alone
If my dreams were horses I would ride
But don't you cry, we can laugh it offI used to be scared of flying
Now I wanna fall out the sky
I used to be scared of flying
But now I want toLeft alone with a heart attack
I'm flat on my back
It's alright 'cause I'm comin' back
I lost a needle in the haystack
And that store's closed
You left your dribble in the can
I draw a note scribble out the mess in all my hair
'Cause I'm just a fool who believes in a common dream
But forever got the best of meI used to be scared of flying
Now I wanna fall out the sky
I used to be scared of flying
But now I want toI sold my soul for a cigarette
'Cause a sucker let me down
I used to be a mess I don't trust her
She's the only good person I know
If dreams were horses she would ride
Only you won't catch me I'm hidingI used to be scared of flying
I used to be scared of flying
But now I wanna fall out the sky
I used to be scared of flying
But now I want to
