Unison

BjÃ¶rk

I'm born, stubborn, me and will always be
Before you count one, two, three
I will, grown my own
Private branch of this treeYou gardener, you discipliner
Domestically, I can obey
All of your rules
And still be, beI never thought I would compromise
I never thought I would compromise
I never thought I would
I never thought I would, let's unite, tonight
We wish you, shouldn't fight
Embrace, you tight, let's unite, tonightI thrive best, hermit style
With a beard, and a pipe
And a parrot on each side
But now I can't do this without youI never thought I would compromise
I never thought I would compromise
I never thought I would
I never thought I would, let's unite, tonight
We wish you, shouldn't fight
Embrace, you tight, let's unite, tonightOne hand
It loves the other
So much of meLet unite tonight
We shouldn't fight
Embrace you tight
Let unite tonightLet unite, tonight
We wish you, shouldn't fight
Embrace, you tight, let's unite, tonightLet's unite, tonight
We wish you, shouldn't fight
Embrace, you tight, let's unite, tonightUnison
