

Honky Tonkin' Ramblin' Man

Joey Allcorn

well I sure didn't get my style from M.T.V they won't ever play my songs on C.M.T
I'm just a hillbilly singer with a 5 piece band
I'm a real honky tonkin ramblin man

I like songs about murder, drinking, God and drugs and jail...
Tennessee whiskey and livin outta cheap motels

I'm not the rebel front man of some outlaw band

I'm a real honky tonkin ramblin man

I was raised in a house not too far from the railroad tracks
I guess that's where I got my rhythm at I was born with a guitar in my hand
I'm a real honky tonkin ramblin man

when I hear that whistle gotta pack my things and go I'll grab my guitar and I'll hit that open road for three more weeks of playing one night stands
I'm a real honky tonkin ramblin man

Lyrics Submitted by PrimeTimeChuck

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>