Rescue

Alysha Brilla

When your shoulders are heavy and it looks like theres a break in the levy I'll be right around the corner If your worry is a woman then you'd better warn her If your little boat is sinking oh and all night long, you lay awake thinking I will paddle through the ocean with a bottle of wine and a song of devotion

Hey dont worry I'm on my way I'm gonna love you until my dying day when the world wants to trouble and test you I will run to your rescue yes, I will run to your rescue whoah, I will run to your rescue

Well someone left you in a mess now with a pain in your chest that you cant express now Well dont you let it turn you bitter I swear that one of these days it will get better hey everybody has their down days everybody has a feeling jus-like-a-clown days and they all love you when youre on top but when youre at the bottom, pile up they wont stop

Hey dont worry I'm on my way
I'm gonna love you until my dying day
when the world wants to trouble and test you
I will run to your rescue
yes, I will run to your rescue

So hold on when hope looks like its gone soon you'll be looking at a brighter sun
when the world wants to trouble and test you
i will run to your rescue

so, so dont lose faith oh I'll be on my way with my little cape you know that one of these days, you wont need me anyway

Hey dont worry, i'm on my way i'm gonna love you until you feel ok this world might try to take away the best in you but when it does, i'll run to your rescue

Hey dont worry I'm on my way
I'm gonna love you until my dying day
when the world wants to trouble and test you
I will run to your rescue
yes, I will run to your rescue

i'll be there
i will run to your rescue well yes i swear
i will run to your rescue so hold baby
i will run to your rescue
i'll be there
i said now wait for me
just wait and see
i will run to your rescue
i said now, ohhhh.....
