

Out from Under

Allan Holdsworth

She makes it hard to guess, is it a yes?Left my bet to ride, my hands are tied
Oh, to see inside
Take the world for a rideComing Out From Under stone,
You're not alone.Playing solo, is it a no?He's some fool and alright,
What's done is done,
Pull out a plum, Maybe I'll just cut and run..Out From Under stone,
You're not alone.She needs no partner, disheartener.I always came loaded, leaving light,
Aces all run dry, no longer eye to eyeUnder a stone, you're not alone
