

Rambler, Gambler

Bob Dylan

Im a Rambler, I'm a Gambler,
I'm a long way from my home

    If the people don't like me they can leave me alone Come sit down beside me, come sit down right here

        Come sit down, long as you want to Love will always be here
    When we get to Wyoming the letter you'll see

        If you get in to trouble just you write and tell meFor I once had a lover, her age was sixteen

    She's the flower of Belton

And the rose of SalineHer parents was against me

        Now she is the same
        If I'm writ on your book, love Just you blot out my name
        For theres changes in the ocean Theres changes in the sea Theres changes in my true love
            There ain't no change in me
