Cheesy Love Song

The Ice Cream Militia

When my eyes landed on you
Your smile turned my grey skies blue
I thought your heart was meant for mine
I guess I'll have to wait in line
So much for love at first sight, ooh woah ooh

This is a cheesy love song
About the high school sweetheart I never had
As I stop to reminisce, it is what it is
This is a cheesy love song

At your locker across the hall
You never noticed me at all
I left a message on your phone
But at the bell I'm left alone
'cause I'm stupid I'm going home, ooh woah ooh

This is a cheesy love song
About the high school sweetheart I never had
As I stop to reminisce, it is what it is
This is a cheesy love song

This is a cheesy love song
About the high school sweetheart I never had
As I stop to reminisce, it is what it is
This is a cheesy love song
